

THE BEST HOLIDAY EVER

Last summer, Joel and Sara travelled to England. They stayed there for two weeks. They travelled in August and stayed in a college with other students in Brighton, the South of England. It was really fantastic because they talked to a lot of students from many different countries and learned a lot about other cultures. Of course, they learned a lot of English because they practiced it every day. In the morning they studied a little, they asked the teacher and he answered their questions. In the afternoon they visited different places or played different sports at the college. It was so much fun! They often walked down to the beach with their new friends and played or chatted. In the evening they were tired so they sometimes watched videos or played board games.

The best days were Saturday and Sunday because they travelled to London by bus. The city is very big and they visited all the monuments like Big Ben, The London Eye and Buckingham Palace. They wanted to see the Queen but they didn't see her, only her guards!

They liked everything in the city but their favourite thing were the museums. There were lots of realistic figures of famous people in the museum.

At the end of the two weeks, they were sad because they returned home. They cried a little when they waved goodbye to their new friends. It was the best holiday ever!
